LARGE CROWD AT COUNTY

SEAT ATTENDING COURT

Judge Chelf Able to Preside--Scene Around Capital Like a Horse Show Day, So Many Kentucky Thoroughbreds on Exhibition.

John Beavin Must Part With Sixty Hard Plunks

There was a fine crowd of people in Hardinsburg Monday at the opening of May circuit court. Judge Chelf, although quite weak, was on hand with Commonwealth's Attorney, J. R. Layman, to open court. Court was opened promptly at 9 o'clock, the grand jury impeached, reports from officers heard, a few cases called and adjournment taken until Tuesday when the petit jury will be made up and the business of grinding out the regular docket will proceed.

In the afternoon the court room was thrown open to the farmers, who held a very successful meeting regarding the pooling and selling of their next crop of tobacco. On the courthouse square a great crowd of well-to-do, fine looking, prosperous farmers were assembled to witness the great display of thoroughbreds on exhibition in the street. It looked like a horse show day in the Blue Grass. To see the handsome steeds prancing up and down the street, as pretty and as fine as they could be, was truly a sight pleasant to behold.

Beard Bros' string of fine stallions captured the crowd. Their Sporting Bred, Chester Green Montgomery and Highland Glenworth were as fine as the best of their class. The Beard Bros. are to be congratulated on their enterprise and efforts to build up a fine class of horses in this county.

Lon Jarboe, of Kirk, had on exhibition his fine black, young stallion, Claude Mercer, 2 years old, a fine sed-

FARMERS AND TOBACCO

GROWERS HAVE BIG MEETING

John E. Monarch Elected Secretary and in Plain Words Tells Tobacco Men to Join Hands With Green River Tobacco Association Quickly--Nat Shrewsbury Elected Chairman.

Organization The Keynote Of The Big Gathering

The Farmers and Tobacco Growers of Breckenridge County met in a mass convention at Hardinsburg Monday and organized a County Union for the purpose of pooling and selling their tobacco.

John E. Monarch was elected temporary chairman with John D. Babbage secretary.

Mr. Monarch stated that the object of the meeting which was for the purpose of getting together and selling their tobacco. He said the arrangement they had last year was not satisfactory either to the seller or the buyer and that some other arrangements had to be made, if the growers wanted a fair price for their tobacco. His advice was that a county union be organized with a view of joining the Green River Tobacco Association of Owensboro. This is what the farmers should have done last year but they declined to do it, thinking they could sell their product just as well as an Independent Association. Mr.

Monarch said they had found out their mistake and he thought the only thing to do now was to get into that organization and do it quickly.

The meeting then went into permanent organization by electing Nat Shrewsbury permanent chairman and Mr. Monarch permanent secretary. Jas. W. Miller moved that a county union be formed with a view of becoming a member of the Green River Tobacco Growers Association. The motion was carried without a dissenting voice.

There were several speeches made on the subject of organization and it seemed to be the sentiment of the meeting that the county should be thoroughly organized if the growers of tobacco expected a fair price for their product. It was also the sentiment of the meeting that 10,000 plants to the hand be strictly adhered to.

The meeting then adjourned to meet on the call of the chairman.
